MainText:

"This local southern Fujianese cult, from the country town of An-chu-kung, has only been noted in one temple, in Singapore, on the Buena Vista Road where he is the main deity on the main altar, and for at least thirty years, apart from major refurbishing of the temple and its few deities, the place appears to have no daily activity and few devotees except at the annual festival which is celebrated on the double 10th.

The images which stood in the temple before about 1925 when
